

70th Branch Anniversary

ST GEORGE'S DAY – WEEKEND
CELEBRATIONS - Saturday 22nd April 2006
St George's Day Dinner and the 70th Anniversary of the Founding of Long Ashton Royal British Legion Branch.

A formal Dinner with a programme of speeches and quotes was followed by the presentation of a cake, to be used for the Branch's 70th Anniversary Tea. The mood of the evening then changed with a sing-a-long

Sunday 23rd April 2006

Service at the Long Ashton Royal British Legion Garden of Remembrance to mark the Branch's 70th Anniversary was followed by presentation of Veterans badges and a tea.

A Service to Mark the 70th Anniversary of The Branch

We Will Remember Them

Cake cutting by County President
Lt Col Bobby Hanscomb OBE

Veterans photo call after receiving their Veteran's Badges

